Oral Communication (OC)

- Apply public speaking skills and concepts to oral presentations
- Analyze the characteristics of a target audience to create an oral presentation that is appropriate for and respectful of a diverse audience
- Select appropriate content based on the purpose and audience of the oral presentation
- Incorporate credible research into an oral presentation
- Organize the content of an oral presentation effectively
- Use appropriate grammar, mechanics, and style in oral presentations
- Create a well-designed presentational aid that complements a message in an oral presentation
- Collaborate in a group in order to complete tasks for a group presentation